Art Unit: 3743

The disclosure and claims of the application are objected to because the term "bowl" is misdescriptive of the disclosed invention (the term "roll" should be used throughout).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schneid.

Note axially movable insulating sleeves 14, and note bridging sentence of columns 1-2, lines 55-60 of column 2 of Schneid.

Claims 2-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Zaoralek is similar to Schneid, and has a US filing date which lies between applicant's filing date and priority date.
